Top tips for reading!

Each half term we will send home and upload a newsletter with some top tips for helping your child with reading at home. This term is all about our new home reading books!

Green words

At the front of the home reading books, there are 'story green words'. Green words are words that the children can sound out (Fred talk). Practise sounding them out before reading the story

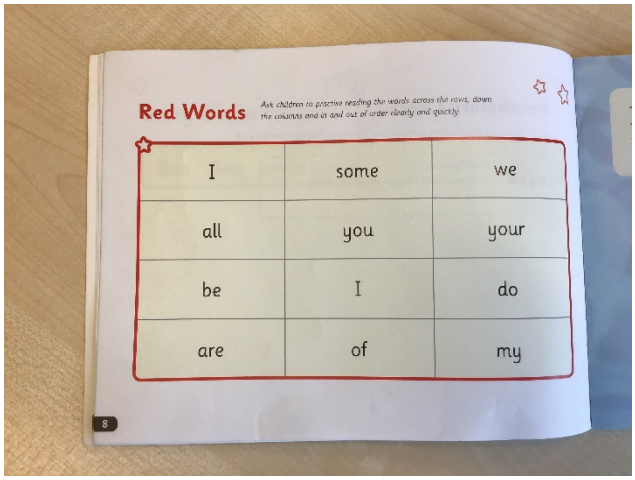
Red Words

Red words are words that the children cannot sound out. Encourage the children to practise reading these words quickly and clearly. Can they read them quicker each time?



Red Words

Ask children to practise reading the words across the rows, down the columns and in and out of order clearly and quickly.

Red Words

Red Words are harder to read because the letters represent unusual sounds. Ask your child to read the red words, but if he or she gets stuck on a word, read the word to your child. This book contains the following red words:

do you to be the I've I what

Take a look on our school website under 'Read, Write, Inc' for a list of all sounds.
