

What is the Bible and why is it important to Christians?

Enquiry Questions	Substantive Knowledge and concepts	Ways of Knowing	Personal Knowledge
Why is the Bible important to Christians?	What is the Bible? How is the Bible structured (Old and New Testaments)? What kinds of writings are found in the Bible? How do Christians use the Bible in their daily lives and worship?	How do we learn about the importance of the Bible to Christians? What sources can we use to understand Christian beliefs about the Bible?	How might the teachings in the Bible relate to children's lives? What do children think about the stories and messages in the Bible?
How do Christians use the Bible at home and at Church?	How is the Bible used in Christian homes? How is the Bible used in Christian church services? What are some different ways Christians read or study the Bible? What role does the Bible play in Christian prayer and worship?	How can we learn about Christian practices with the Bible? What sources might we use to understand how Christians use the Bible?	How do children think the Bible might influence a Christian's daily life? What similarities or differences do children notice between uses of the Bible at home and in church?
What are the different kinds of writing in the Bible and why each is important?	What are the main types of writing found in the Bible? (e.g., stories, poetry, letters, laws) What are some examples of each type of writing? Why are different types of writing used in the Bible? How do these different types of writing contribute to the overall message of the Bible?	How can we identify different types of writing in the Bible? Where can we find information about the importance of these different types of writing?	Which types of writing do children find most interesting or meaningful? How might different types of writing help people understand religious messages?
What makes a book special to different people?	What are some examples of books that are special to different religions? Why are certain books considered sacred or special in different faiths?	How can we learn about what makes books special to different people? What sources might we use to understand the	What books are special to the children themselves and why? How do children think special books might influence people's lives?

	How do people treat special or sacred books? What makes a book special to an individual, even if it's not religious?	importance of sacred texts in various religions?
How do different genres of writing in the Bible show different aspects of God?	What are the main genres of writing found in the Bible? (e.g., narrative, poetry, prophecy, letters) How does each genre present God differently? What aspects of God are highlighted in different types of biblical writing? How do these different writings contribute to the overall understanding of God in Christianity?	How can we identify different genres in the Bible? What methods can we use to understand how these genres portray God?	Which genres do children find most helpful in understanding the concept of God? How do children relate to the different portrayals of God in various biblical genres?
What is in the old and new testament of the Bible?	What is the basic structure of the Bible (Old and New Testaments)? What are some key stories, characters, and themes in the Old Testament? What are some key stories, characters, and themes in the New Testament? How are the Old and New Testaments connected?	How can we find out what's in the Old and New Testaments? What sources can help us understand the content of the Bible?	Which stories or characters from the Bible do children find most interesting or meaningful? How do children think the stories in the Old and New Testaments might be relevant to people today?