

Enquiry Questions	Substantive Knowledge and concepts	Ways of Knowing	Personal Knowledge
What are the themes of the Bible and familiar stories?	What are some overarching themes in the Bible? (e.g., love, forgiveness, faith, redemption)            What are some well-known stories from the Bible?            How do these familiar stories illustrate the Bible's themes?            How do different parts of the Bible (Old and New Testament) reflect these themes?	How can we identify themes in biblical stories?            What methods can we use to analyse and understand biblical narratives?	Which biblical themes do children find most relevant to their own lives?            How do children interpret the messages in familiar Bible stories?
What is the story of Ruth and Naomi?	Who are Ruth and Naomi, and what is their relationship?            What are the key events in their story?            What themes are present in the story (e.g., loyalty, kindness, faith)?            How does this story fit into the larger context of the Bible?	Where in the Bible can we find the story of Ruth and Naomi?            How can we analyse and understand the narrative structure of this story?	How might children relate to the characters or situations in the story?            What lessons or values do children think this story teaches?
What is the story of Daniel and how is this related to religious persecution today?	Who was Daniel and what is his story in the Bible?            What challenges did Daniel face because of his faith?            What is religious persecution?            How does Daniel's story relate to modern examples of religious persecution?	Where in the Bible can we find Daniel's story?            How can we learn about current religious persecution around the world?	How do children think they might react in a situation similar to Daniel's?            What do children think about the idea of standing up for one's beliefs?

What are the parables of Jesus?	What is a parable?          What are some of the well-known parables of Jesus?          What themes or messages are common in Jesus' parables?          How do parables fit into Jesus' overall teaching method?	Where in the Bible can we find Jesus' parables?          How can we interpret and understand the meaning of parables?	Which parables do children find most meaningful or interesting?          How do children think the messages in these parables might apply to modern life?
What can we learn about Christian baptism from the story of John the Baptist?	Who was John the Baptist?          What is the story of John the Baptist in the Bible?          What is Christian baptism and its significance?          How does John's baptism relate to modern Christian baptism practices?	Where in the Bible can we find the story of John the Baptist?          How can we learn about different baptism practices in Christian denominations today?	What do children think about the symbolism and meaning of baptism?          How do children relate to the idea of spiritual cleansing or new beginnings?
Who is Paul and the early church?	Who was Paul and what was his role in early Christianity?          What was the early Christian church like?          How did Paul contribute to the spread of Christianity?          What were some of Paul's key teachings?	Where can we find information about Paul and the early church in the Bible?          What other historical sources tell us about the early Christian church?	How do children think the early church might have been different from churches today?          What do children think about Paul's transformation from persecutor to apostle?