

Y6 – Why do some civilisations leave a lasting legacy?

Significance

Enquiry question		Substantive knowledge	Key vocabulary	Disciplinary knowledge
1 	Where and when was Ancient Greece? Chronology	Where was Ancient Greece located and what physical features shaped it? When did Ancient Greece exist and what were some key events in its history?	Ancient Greece Civilisation City-state Chronology Athens	Chronological Understanding Analyse patterns, trends and connections across different periods and places. Historical Enquiry Formulate, investigate and answer complex historical enquiries using evidence. Sources and Evidence Critically evaluate provenance, reliability and utility, using multiple sources to support conclusions. Historical Interpretations Critically analyse interpretations, considering context, purpose and evidence used. Historical Communication and Argument Construct balanced historical arguments and reach substantiated conclusions.
2 	How was Ancient Athens different from Britain today? Similarity and Difference	How did democracy work in Athens? What was daily life like for different groups in Athenian society?	Democracy Citizen Assembly Education Society
3 	How were Sparta and Athens similar and different? Similarity and Difference	What were the key features of Spartan society? How did Sparta and Athens govern and educate their people differently?	Sparta Athens Military Government Citizen
4 	Where and when was Early Islamic Civilisation? Change and Continuity	How did Early Islamic Civilisation spread? What regions became part of the Islamic world?	Islam Caliphate Empire Trade Civilisation
5 	What was so special about Baghdad? Cause and Consequence	Why did Baghdad become a centre of trade and learning? What impact did the House of Wisdom have?	Baghdad House of Wisdom Scholar Trade Consequence
6 	How did Islamic scholars influence the wider world? Sources and Evidence	What discoveries did Islamic scholars make in medicine, mathematics and astronomy? How were Islamic discoveries and ideas transmitted across the world?	Scholar Algebra Medicine Astronomy Evidence
7 	Which achievements from Ancient Greece and Early Islamic Civilisation still affect us today? Significance	Which Greek achievements have had a lasting impact? Which Islamic achievements continue to influence our world today?	Legacy Achievement Influence Significance Impact

Showcase Option 1: Legacy Museum Exhibition*Which civilisation left the most lasting legacy for the modern world?Significance, Sources & EvidenceShowcase Option 2: Legacy Debate and Recommendation*Why do some civilisations leave a lasting legacy while others are less remembered?Significance, Historical Interpretation*